Salvi, World-Famous Concert Harpist, To Appear As First Lyceum Attraction, Oct. 10

Talented Instrumental Quartet To Assist Well-Known Artist; Musical Group Presents Unusual Concert Program; Noted Critics Praise Quintet

(By Marion Collins)

Next Thursday evening at 8:15 the Salvi Instrumental Quintet, featuring the internationally famous harpist, Albert Salvi, will appear in concert in Weld Hall. The presentation of the unique musical group is a noteworthy accomplishment of the M. S. T. C. Lyceum committee. Albert Salvi was born in romantic Venice. His father was a noted harp maker who fashioned a diminutive harp for his son and gave him his first lessons on the instrument. Salvi, even in his boyhood, showed a pronounced musical talent. He was awarded the Royal Scholarship Prize, and received his higher musical education at the expense of the Italian government.

Critics Enthusiastic

Mr. Salvi is as well known in America as he is on the Continent. Since his debut in the United States, he has played to appreciative audiences in New York, Chicago, San Francisco and other cultural key-cities of the country. Critics are enthusiastic in their praise of the talented Italian who has revolutionized harp playing.

Assisting Mr. Salvi in his program and accompanying him in several numbers are Oscar Chanson, violin; Harold Newton, viola; Ernest Gunterman, flute; and Alfredo Mazzari, violin-cello.

The program of the Lyceum concert is:

Variations Pastorales—Samuel-Rousseau, harp solo with quartet accompaniment; Quartet in D Major, No. 28—Mozart; Etude in A Flat—Chopin-Salvi, and The Fountain-Salvi, harp solos; Variations Libres et Finales, Opus 51—Pierne, instrumental quintet.

Loccata—P. Alvers, Siciliana—Respighi, and Danse Espagnole—de Falla-Salvi, harp solos; Suite en Paries, Opus 91—Vincent d'Indy, instrumental quintet.

Students are especially urged to avail themselves of this opportunity to hear a musician who is undoubtedly the greatest of harp players.

Illustrated Talk On Indian Life To Feature Next Chapel

Fred Schilplin Explains National Housing Act At Chapel Wednesday

"The Indian and His Racial Integrity" will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Roy F. Williams, who will speak at Chapel next Wednesday. He has several sepia enlargements of Indian pictures taken by a cousin who spent a lifetime securing them.

Fred Schilplin, state director of the federal housing administration, explained the aims and purpose of the new National Housing Act at Chapel last Wednesday. The act has for its purpose the repairing and remodeling of homes and a new plan of home finance which was worked out on an old established system long used in Europe.

Internationally Famous Speakers, Musicians To Appear At Local M. E. A.

Little Philharmonic Orchestra To Be Featured; Bands, Amphion Will Appear

Presenting a program featuring internationally famous speakers and outstanding musical entertainment, the Western Division of the Minnesota Educational Association will hold its convention in Moorhead, October 17 and 18.

The program includes such outstanding speakers as George E. Sokolsky, famous as an authority on problems of the Far East. He has edited newspapers in several foreign cities including Petrograd, Tientsin, and Shanghai. At present he is employed on the staff of the Atlantic Monthly and the New York Times. He will present the topic "Democracy Survives."

Essay To Speak

J. Frederick Essary, noted correspondent, political commentator, and at present head of the press department on President Roosevelt's western tour, will be presented.

The brilliant clergyman, lecturer, and author, Dr. Lloyd Douglas, will speak on "The Flight to Freedom." Dr. Douglas is author of "The Magnificent" (Continued on Page 4)

J. C. Hallack Weds; Gets New Position

M. S. T. C. Alum, '32, Marries Montana Girl; Is Partner In Newspaper

To the list of summer weddings must be added the names of J. C. Hallack, commonly known in M. S. T. C. circles as "Claire," and Miss Margaret J. Evered. Mr. and Mrs. Hallack are making their home in Nashua, where Mr. Hallack has a partnership in a newspaper.

Mrs. Hallack is a graduate of the Polytechnic Institute, Billings, Mont. Mr. Hallack has for the last two years been instructor of journalism and manager of the Polytechnic print shop. He was graduated from Moorhead State Teachers College in 1932, where he was very active in music organizations, being a member of Chapel Choir, Double Male Quartet, the College Orchestra, and the Band.

Lyceum Tickets

Students may secure reserved seats for the Salvi concert by presenting activity tickets Monday from 3:00 to 5:00 in room 244. All seats are reserved, and no exchange will be made the evening of the concert.

Tickets for the general public are $1.00. Seats are on sale at Mackall's Drug Store.

Martha Lou Price Is New Feature Editor

Sixteen Reporters Selected By Staff As Result Of Extended Tryouts

Martha Lou Price, Sophomore, Moorhead, was named feature editor to complete organization of the MISTIC staff for 1935-36. She replaces Mabel Peoples, Senior, Detroit Lakes, who was feature editor last year and has assisted the staff this year.

As a result of the tryouts which have been taking place during the past three weeks, the following new reporters have been selected: Donald Tescher, Moorhead; Kenneth Christiansen, Porter; Madeline Filbrant, Newfolden; Annabelle Cruickshank, Fergus Falls; Carol Forsberg, Minneapolis; Esther Bridgeford, East Grand Forks; Donna Olsund, Beltrami; Virginia Murray, Wadena; Gladys Engelhart, Moorhead; Vincent Murphy, Felton; Arla Bru, Madison; Theodora Benidt, Lidgerwood, N. D.

Dorothy Murray is the latest reporter trying out. Anyone else wishing to do likewise is invited to report to the MISTIC office.

Ruth Hannaford New Head Of College Band

Ruth Hannaford, Sophomore, Moorhead, was elected president of the College band at last Monday's rehearsal. Miss Hannaford is the first woman to be elected to this position since its organization in February, 1928.

The band now has a membership of forty-three students; two new members, Helen Peoples, Detroit Lakes, trombone, and Nora Glesne, Battle Lake, clarinet, were added this week. The band's next appearance will be during Dads' and Mothers' Day, October 12, when it will be seen on the field. Practice on field maneuvers is being held now under the direction of Dr. Christensen, director. The new bell-lyre, played by Helen Rauk, will be introduced during the Parents' Day program.

Gusty Males To Mix, Maul, Manhandle, Mutilate For Ratios Of Good Grub

Calling all males! Calling all males! Put on your (soup) drinking pants, open your shirt collar, put your inhibitions in your pockets, and ankle up to Comstock Hall for the greatest gab-fest since the sessions of King Art and his lily lads.

History will be made at the big jam-boree to be held Wednesday night, October 9, starting at 6:30. The flowing bowl (for early arrivals), plenty of good grub, and choice bits of masculine bovine expertly manipulated are highlights on the program, which is expected to start a new era in the history of the institution.

So dig down, lads, and get your tickets at the public square Monday or Tuesday. Two-bits and a dime it'll cost you if you don't feed at the dorm; dormites are admitted free. The Owls, A. E.'s, and the Y. M. C. A. are throwing the party and are responsible for all breakage and mayhem (modified and otherwise). They're expecting every suspender toter, man or monkey, on the campus, so "can" the little lady for the evening and stagger-in for a chat and a snack.

Program Arrangements For Parents' Day, October 12, Announced By Committee

Various Prizes To Be Awarded To Mothers And Dads At Informal Luncheon; Other Activities To Include Tour Of Campus

(By Elaine Hanson)

Parents will be able to walk the paths of college life for a day with their sons and daughters as M. S. T. C. holds open-house for Dads and Mothers, Saturday, October 12. Besides open-house activities in which parents will have the opportunity of meeting faculty members and students, luncheon will be given in honor of the visitors. Prizes will be awarded to parents at the luncheon. Following the luncheon Dads and Mothers will be guests of the College at the Duluth-Dragon game at Memorial Field.

Calendar Of Events

Five Candidates Are Named For Queen

Fuglie, Gutzler, Jones, Olson And Peoples Nominated For Royal Position

Five candidates for 1935 Homecoming Queen were selected by the publicity committee and certified by the Student Commission Thursday. According to tradition one girl was chosen by each of the four sororities, and the committee chose one non-sorority girl. Additional candidates may be added by popular request. Petitions will be received by the committee, of which Vincent Schneider is head, up to Wednesday, October 9. They must bear fifty signatures, and no name must appear on more than one petition.

Margaret Fuglie, of Barrett, senior, president of her sorority, member of the Student Commission, of Alpha Psi Omega, the Dramatic Club, Euterpe Singers, and the Praeceptor Hall of Fame, was named by the Beta Chi sorority.

Barbara Gutzler, of Park Rapids, sophomore, member of the Chapel Choir, Euterpe Singers, College Orchestra, and president of her sorority, was chosen by Psi Delta Kappa.

Grace Jones, of Moorhead, sophomore, member of the MISTIC staff, the Country Life Club, and the cast of the 1935 January Jubilee, was chosen to represent the student body outside the sororities.

Signe Olson, senior, editor of the '35 Praeceptor, member Alpha Psi Omega, Kappa Delta Pi, Oramatic Club, Euterpe Singers, Lambda Phi Sigma, and Hall of Fame, was chosen by the Pi Mu Phi sorority.

Mabel Peoples, senior, editor of the '36 Praeceptor, member of the MISTIC staff, Art Club, January Jubilee costume director, and Hall of Fame, was selected by the Gamma Nu sorority.

Donald Bird Writes Again; Jubilant Over Cobber Game

The results of the Dragon-Cobber game on Saturday proved gratifying to M. S. T. C. alumni as well as students. "While sitting in a down-town cafe this morning eating breakfast, I glanced at the sports section of the Sunday paper and was amazed and delighted to see that the Dragons took the Cobbers into camp to the tune of 20-0," writes Donald Bird, teacher at Grand Rapids high school.

"I let out a yell which frightened the one other early occupant into pouring coffee on his buckwheats and drinking the syrup. The waitress approached and asked if I wished something. I told her that the Dragons had won from the Cobbers, but for some reason or other, she didn't appreciate my enthusiasm."

The first event of the day will be an Open House from 10:30 to 11:45 a. m., during which students will escort their parents to the various departments of the College which will be open for inspection. Faculty members will be in attendance, and hope to make the acquaintance of the parents.

Noon Luncheon

At 12 o'clock a luncheon will be held in Comstock Hall. Here a lively, informal program will be held consisting of musical numbers by students, short talks by faculty members, and the presentation of gifts to the parents who have come the greatest number of miles, and to those who have sent the most children to this College. Parents who are alumni of this institution will also be honored.

Students who board at the dormitory may secure tickets to the luncheon for their parents free of charge. Students living off-campus may secure tickets at twenty-five cents per plate for themselves and their parents or guardians.

Every student must make reservations for his parents at the registrar's office before October 10.

One of the outstanding features of the day will be the football game between M. S. T. C. and Duluth. The game will begin at 2:30 and tickets will be given free to all parents or guardians who attend the luncheon at Comstock Hall.

The committee on arrangements urges all students to invite their parents to join them October 12 to enjoy this program of entertainment in their honor.

Parents, Teachers To Hold Thirteenth Annual Convention

President MacLean To Speak At Convention In Detroit Lakes, Oct. 9-11

"Home Keeping Hearts Are Happiest" is the theme of the Thirteenth Annual Convention of the Minnesota Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held at Detroit Lakes, October 9, 10 and 11, 1935.

The first day, Wednesday, October 9, is Community Day. A general session will be held in the high school auditorium at 10:30 a. m., with Mrs. S. E. Linsley presiding. The various sections will hold meetings in the high school between 1:45 and 2:45 p. m. A large banquet held in the high school gymnasium will bring Community Day to a close.

Thursday, October 10, is School Day, opening with the Early Bird Conference held between 7:30 and 8:30 p. m. A Rural Conference, an Elementary Conference, and a Junior-Senior High Conference will be held from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m. "Schools Today and Tomorrow" is the title of President R. B. MacLean's talk to be given at the general session at 10:30 a. m. In the afternoon a health session is to be held in the high school auditorium.

Jack Bridges Is Granted University Assistantship

Jack Bridges, former M. S. T. C. student, has been granted an assistantship at the University of Minnesota, where he is studying for his masters degree in political science. In connection with the assistantship, he maintains an international relations bureau and serves as counselor for a group of foreign students.

He is the son of S. G. Bridges, head of the College social science department.

Teachers Colleges Get "New Deal" In California

AS A RESULT of the signing of a legislative bill by Governor Frank F. Merriam this fall, the word "teachers" has been dropped from the names of state teachers colleges throughout California. The bill provides that such liberal arts courses as may be deemed useful to teachers can be added to the curriculum.

The passage of this bill is regarded in California as not only a victory in the long fight for recognition of these schools as liberal arts colleges, but a definite step toward better trained teachers.

Minnesota teachers colleges, while retaining teacher training as their main function, are leaders in this progressive movement also, having liberalized the curriculum so as to offer broad cultural training to all degree students for the first two years.

At the end of these two years of cultural education, the curriculum is differentiated to permit prospective teachers to secure their professional training. Other students, who are either not pedagogically inclined or unqualified to become teachers, may go into other fields without loss of credit.

This movement will act to cut down the oversupply of teachers, insure that those who are trained will be of high caliber, and at the same time enable many students not interested in teaching to obtain an education.

Are Teachers' Salaries Adequate?

I'M SORT OF WORKING for board, room, and experience," is the way the teacher of a nearby school expressed himself during a visit to the campus last week.

The statement was accompanied by an avowal of love for his work. But after all, hasn't a highly-trained professional workman a right to expect more than a bare existence from his calling even though it be a "labor of love?"

The research division of the N. E. A. reports in a recent survey that average teacher's wages are ninety-four to ninety-seven percent of the amount they were in 1929. The average wage for this region, however, is considerably lower—our own faculty receiving ninety percent of their 1929 wage—and in some cases it may be that a Bachelor of Education working for "board, room, and experience" is more of a stark reality than a whimsical remark.

Be that as it may, it is clear that to obtain and keep teachers with the ability, professional training, and general culture needed in a modern program of education, teachers' salaries must provide standards of living as attractive as those enjoyed by persons of similar ability and training in other fields of work.

THE SIGHT OF ALL the alumni who came home to enjoy the Cobber game reminds us that Homecoming will soon be here.

WE WONDER if there are any students on the campus this year who are so unappreciative of their cultural opportunities that they will pass up the Lyceum concert Thursday evening.

In the Ohio state penitentiary there are 131 college graduates.

The Book Shelf

WE ARE BUILDERS OF A NEW WORLD, by Harry H. Moore. This little guidebook has been prepared for young men and women, especially those in our colleges and high schools, who would gain a clearer understanding of the present social and economic crisis—who would help build a new and better world. Not only does the book analyze the present situation in an effective way, but it offers youth a constructive approach to the settlement of the problems he is naturally going to face.

Numerous illuminating and stirring passages from such competent writers as James T. Adams, Sir Philip Gibbs and Walter Lippmann, have been selected for the purpose of illustrations. The whole work is elevating and should prove a great help to our young people in challenging them to meet their problems more courageously.

THE CASE FOR MANCHUKUO, by George Bronson Rea. Among world problems there is none more of direct interest to the western world than the situation in the Far East in the newly formed state of Manchukuo. In this book George Bronson Rea voices a powerful presentation of the claims of Manchukuo to the recognition denied it by every nation except Japan. His book will be found to present fully and arrestingly the Japanese side of the threatening question that is rapidly developing in the Far East.

This book is a complete survey of the international situation with respect to the Orient and challenges the reader to serious consideration of problems that may readily lead to another world war. Mr. Rea offers constructive suggestions for a sound foreign policy which will avert present danger of war and permanently settle the problems of the Pacific.

Lil Audrey Resurrected

Lil audrey is laffing again, but that's better than cackling, anyhow.

That husky davy duvall has gone in for knitting in a great big way—he's working on a pair of sox. Incidentally, he wasn't exactly knitting when I saw him out canoeing one Saturday afternoon. She's a nurse, too.

Have you heard about elizabeth williamson hag's new "posh?" He's a little freshie Irishman who keeps her in vittles.

Gracious! eleanor sherman's geranium is "expecting!" Visiting hours—7 to 10, any night.

I wish I could buy pug gislason at my price and sell him at his. (It's the jewish in me.)

The youngest murray gal is just like major bowes wheel of fortune: "round and round she goes, and where she'll stop nobody knows!" William, wally, hughie, harold, and now Carlton.

Advice to freshmen: If you don't work so fast you'll last longer! (That goes for j. chisholm, too.)

One of the Fergus gals goes in for social work in a big way. She's interested in the "hull"—house so what the buxley.

The week's weightiest question: Are the davnies going to M. S. T. C. this term or to the college club? (That isn't an advertisement.)

Famous last words—"That's what you think!"

IF SLIV NEMZEK can unearth a few athletes who can match the sprinting form Hollister showed in his 95-yard dash over the Cobber goal line Saturday, M. S. T. C. should boast an excellent track team next spring.

I guess the best way for a Freshman to get along is to believe nothing that he hears and only half what he sees—and above all keep that green bonnet on.

Educational Chatter

Contributions to this column are welcome at the Department of Education

At Osakis, Minn., the school is being reorganized on a "6-3-3" plan this year. They are having six grades in the elementary school, three for a junior high school, and three for the senior high school.

Teachers of Cass county, N. D., met last Friday for a one-day conference on educational problems. Superintendent Kirk of Fargo spoke on "The Relation of the Superintendent to His Teachers," and Dr. C. P. Archer of Moorhead State Teachers College spoke on "Cooperative Supervision."

Agnes Samuelson, state superintendent of schools at Des Moines, Iowa, is now the president of the National Educational Association. She will speak at the Southeast and Twin City Division of the M. E. A. this fall.

College seniors may become members of the N. E. A. without payment of a membership fee. Under a plan announced by the national office, seniors in training for teaching may join the association and receive the Journal without charge until September, 1936.

The Minnesota Congress of Parents and Teachers will gather at Detroit Lakes October 9, 10, 11 for their thirteenth annual convention. Western Minnesota will be well represented.

Jesse Newon of Columbia said at the N. E. A. at Denver that the teachers of this country have as much right to be heard and as great an obligation to participate in the making of vital, political, economic, and social decisions as have the organized farmers, organized labor, or the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Supt. C. C. Axvall of Detroit Lakes represented western Minnesota at the Denver meeting.

Arthur Skjonsby, B. E., 1933, band director at Hawley, was employed by the Hawley community during the summer months for instruction in music.

Voters of Ulen authorized the issuing of bonds to provide funds to match money from the federal government to erect a new gymnasium.

The city of Moorhead would like to build a new junior high school building if federal money is available. Little opposition to the program was advanced by Moorhead voters in a recent election.

Communities of western Minnesota are getting ready to observe American Education Week, November 11-17. The theme is "Schools and Democracy."

From Other Colleges

It is quite interesting to note that Duluth Teachers College has placed sixty-six of its graduates in comparison with a hundred forty-two placed from our school.

The A. C. has started a campaign to improve their campus this fall. Take note of our campus and see if it doesn't make you feel quite proud.

Coach Lloyd Peterson of the Duluth football squad is making it clear to his men that the Dragons will be their toughest opponents in the Conference this fall.

Yale has a faculty rule which prohibits undergraduates to keep automobiles at college.

Last year 30,757 students borrowed $3,418,000 from loan funds maintained in 531 colleges and universities.

International Merry-Go-Round

An Analysis And Interpretation Of The Highlights In The Week's News
By MARCUS GORDON

President Roosevelt's tour of the west included addresses at Fremont, Neb., Boulder Dam, Los Angeles, and the San Diego Exposition. From there he plans to take a three weeks' cruise back to Washington via the Panama Canal.

Frank B. Kellogg, former Secretary of State and co-author of the Kellogg-Briand Peace Pact to outlaw war, has recently announced his resignation as a justice of the World Court.

The Long faction in Louisiana has finally agreed upon a ticket for the coming election. W. H. Martin will enter the race for the senatorial vacancy; Judge Leche is candidate for governor, and Earl Long, Huey's brother, will run for lieutenant-governor.

Mussolini still hopes to conquer Ethiopia without interference from Europe. The League, however, stands directly between him and his goal, having promised to apply an economic embargo or naval blockade if Italy attacks Ethiopia before December 4. Mussolini declares that this would mean a European war.

Europe's attention is again attracted to Hitler who is threatening to seize Memel, a mandate of Lithuania, which was taken from the Germans by the treaty of Versailles.

Well, sir, they tell me they're movin' one o' these bull seshuns inter the dinin' hall next Wednesday nite. This is gonna be wun round up, when all them beefs get together an' chew the fat. Yep, the old long horns are comin', too, all 'cept Mr. Bridges. They say he's plum nuts on shows. (Goes to wun every year whether its gud or not.) He says he's never seen May West in a picture. Well, sir, Fridlund he ups and makes Bridges so interested that nothin' will stop him now. May West is showin' in Jamestown Wednesday nite an' he's seein' her.

Sum funny things hapen don't they? I hear Chisholm got his partlimentary procedure mixed up an' tried to get the class to vote that the moshun be declined office an' that Wubbens be tabled. (Must figger he's a doctor.)

By the looks o' the blue spots on sum o' the gurls that crost the grave yard the other nite, they could have used a doctor. They say Frances Gates was prayin' fer a cave man er a fish hound.

Funny how the ol' timers cum back t'see the Dragons raise the dust with the Herrings. The band looked sort o' good, too. Yep, lots o' fellers were wishin' fer white pants an' a horn when they came to that gate.

These teacher fellers are buildin' names fer themselves. Take Charles Jahr. When a smart feller asked him if he used the Morison Method, he ups an' tells him he's usin' Charles Jahr's Method. (He knows what's gud fer the kids.)

Dragon Reserves Will Start Against Wildcat Team This Afternoon

Nemzek Looks Forward To Opening Conference Game With Duluth Saturday

by "Stretch" Aho

When the Dragons face the Wahpeton Science team this afternoon on the gridiron at Wahpeton, Coach Nemzek's reserves will carry the brunt of the battle against the Wildcats. The team left by bus at 12:30 today and will trot onto the field at 2:30, ready to play.

In past encounters, the Wildcats have been more or less easy prey for the Dragons. In 1931, the M. S. T. C. warriors emerged victorious to the tune of 20-0, and in 1933 the score was 26-0 in favor of the Dragons. Unless the Wildcats run rough-shod over the reserves, Coach Nemzek's regulars will be able to rest in preparation for the Duluth game next week.

But dope-bucket plans sometimes turn topsy-turvy and the "forgotten men," the reserves, may be unable to cope with the Wildcat attack. In that case, the "big team" will have to swing into action. But Sliv wants to save his stars as much as possible for the first conference game next week with the Duluth Bulldogs, a powerful, ram-paging outfit that is looking for a second conference championship and a chance to avenge the 17-0 defeat administered by the Dragons in last year's fracas.

Tentative lineup includes Balzarini at fullback, DuCharme and Rife at the halves, Elstad at quarterback, Aho at center, Martin and Ielmini at the guard posts, Schroeder and Brula, tackles, and Wilson and Thompson at the end berths.

Baby Dragons Battle Dilworth Team Today

Paul Peters, Tackle, Breaks Leg In Last Friday's 12-0 Victory Over Barnesville

(By Donald Tescher)

Chet Gilpin's Baby Dragons continue their football campaign at Dilworth today after getting the "breaks" in last Friday's contest with Barnesville—one a 12-0 victory, and the other a fracture in the leg of Paul Peters, husky Sophomore tackle.

Shortly after Peters' accident in the initial stanza of the game, Grover, Dragon guard, recovered a fumble on the Barnesville 15-yard line. Earl Trichler and Dick Hoag carried the ball to the nine-yard stripe, from where Trichler converted an intended pass into a left end run, to score the first touchdown.

In the final quarter, 40 yards of steady driving put the local team again in a position to score, which Jim Bly did when he caught an 18-yard pass from Captain Trichler.

The Barnesville boys never threatened the Baby Dragon goal throughout the entire contest, M. S. T. C. High being in possession of the pigskin most of the time.

Senior Grid Stars

Marconeri and Mikulich, both of Bessemer, Michigan, play their last games under the M. S. T. C. banner this fall. When they graduate, both will leave in the forward wall holes that will be hard to fill. "Mickey," the masked right guard, ends his second season under the Crimson and White, while Marconeri, at right end, has starred for three seasons on Dragon teams.

Marconeri

Marconeri had the reputation of being one of the "toughest" ends in the lineup, hard to take out and often making some very spectacular, driving tackles.

Sideline Slants

Conference teams tangle tomorrow as Duluth faces St. Cloud, and Bemidji takes on Mankato. Bemidji upset the favored Winona team 20 to 14 last week, which puts them in the lead for the conference title, since no other teams played. Bud Snyder, husky Dragon guard, suffered a twisted knee in the Cobber game Saturday; which reminds us that the M. S. T. C. Dragon wears the city football crown quite regally. Now all it needs is a ribbon with the conference title tacked on and a sceptre emblematical of the twin-city supremacy. Marconeri, Burke and Meyers held the girls' physical education class spellbound as they lectured on "What every good bleacherite should know about football." Have you met the "pa" and "ma" of Dave and Pepper? Marconeri held the spotlight with his tackling antics Saturday. Mikulich, Meyers, Burke, Hollister, Gotta and Yatchak turned in creditable work.

Kickball, Swimming And Hockey Open To Girls

The fall sport program for women is now in full swing under the guidance of the Women's Athletic Association.

The first game of kickball was played last Monday with Pauline Eddy acting as captain. Kathryn Umhoefer and Fern Kroening were appointed captains of the kickball tournament.

Audrey Streich and Marion Schutt were named captains for the hockey tournament which took place on Thursday. Margaret Johnson is in charge of swimming, which is offered every Tuesday at four o'clock.

The W. A. A. invites every girl in college to come out and take part in this varied program.

Dragons Annex City Grid Crown By Beating Cobbers

Hollister, Burke In Role Of "Touchdown Twins" As City Rivals Bow 20 To 0

(By Carl Fridlund)

Behind a hard charging line which enabled the speedy halfbacks to break loose, the Moorhead State Dragons last Saturday crushed the Concordia Cobbers, 1934 Minnesota Conference champions, under a 20-0 score, thus giving promise to another successful conference season for Coach Alex J. Nemzek's crimson clad proteges.

It was a decisive victory over their rivals that put the Dragons one up in the ancient feud. In 18 clashes since 1915, the Moorhead State footballers have won six, the Cobbers five, and the remaining seven have ended in deadlocks.

The ability to score with a minimum of effort was the contributing factor in the Dragons' triumph. In the first five minutes of play Bill Burke circled his own right end for 52 yards in one of the most thrilling touchdowns of the game.

Hollister in a "Grange"

The second touchdown came at a most dramatic point at the beginning of the second half. Scarcely had the referee's whistle been silenced when Butorac, Cobber end, kicked off to the other member of the "touchdown twins." Hollister snared the pigskin on his own eight yard line and raced with all the speed of a track man, straight down the sidelines. The sparkling 92-yard return stunned the Dragon and Cobber fans as the brilliant half-back swept past three tackles in the last 20 yards to score standing up.

The third and last Dragon score came when Hollister again took the ball and circled his own left flank to scamper unmolested across the goal line after Yatchak had blasted his way to the 10-yard line.

The Cobbers thrilled the crowd with a marvelous exhibition of passing, however, completing 17 out of the attempted 24. Many of these aerials were good for first downs, partially explaining the Obsession," "The Precious Jeopardy," "Green Light," and many other outstanding books.

Louis Untermeyer, who is probably best known for his book, "The Singing World" and "The Book of Living Verse," will be a distinguished guest. Besides being a poetic genius, he is a contributor of reviews and criticisms to such papers as the New York Evening Post, Yale Review, and Saturday Review of Literature, and a writer of prefaces to various books by other authors. He will discuss "Poetry and the Average Man."

Dr. Clyde M. Hill, lecturer, author, and educator, will also speak. At present Dr. Hill is professor of education at Yale University. Among his writings are "Making the Most of High School" and "A Decade of Progress in Teacher Training." Dr. Hill was the inaugurator and supervisor of a state system of junior high schools in Vermont. He will speak on the subject "New Trends in Elementary Education" and "Recent Changes in the Administration of Secondary Education."

Dr. Dora V. Smith will present modern views of English through the topics "Every School Activity an English Activity," "High School English Needs as Revealed by the National English Survey." Dr. Smith is chairman of committee on national survey and chairman of English committee in the education department, University of Minnesota.

H. E. Flynn, supervisor of curriculum in the education department of the University of Minnesota, will assist in the discussion of pertinent problems in school administration.

Musical Attractions

Among the features of an exceptional musical entertainment program are the Little Philharmonic Orchestra of Chicago, under the baton of George H. Shapiro; the Concordia College Band, directed by J. A. Holvik; the popular Amphion Chorus of Fargo-Moorhead, Daniel L. Preston, M. S. T. C., director; the Fargo-Moorhead Women's Chorus, also under the direction of Mr. Preston; the Boys' Chorus of the M. S. T. C. Training School, Maude Wenck, director; a student chorus from State Teachers College, directed by Miss Wenck; and the Moorhead High School Band, Elmer G. Ugen, director.

"The Effect of Social Changes Upon Education in the Northwest" is the topic to be discussed at a symposium of the Schoolmen's Clubs of the Western Division, another feature of this fine educational program.

The annual fall institute for Clay county rural teachers will be held in connection with the M. E. A. program. Miss Cora Giere is to be the instructor.

The divisional conventions of the M. E. A. are held in odd numbered years at the several places within the state chosen by the assembly. Miss Georgina Lommen, director of the Training School, is one of the executive committee of the Western Division, serving in the capacity of secretary-treasurer.
